

GIDLEIGH PARK

A TRANQUIL MOORLAND MANOR SET IN 107 ACRES

HOTEL, RESTAURANT & GROUNDS

Welcome

Set on the upper reaches of the River Teign, Gidleigh Park enjoys an exquisite location on the very edge of Dartmoor National Park. Famed for its culinary credentials, Gidleigh Park offers an air of tranquillity and romance within a Tudor-style country house, beautifully furnished by the Brownsword family.

The Grounds

Set in 107 acres of gardens and woodland, Gidleigh Park sits on the northern bank of the North Teign River in Dartmoor National Park. Guests are able to expend some energy on the croquet lawns, Peter Alliss designed 18-hole putting green or tennis court. A walk through the bluebell woods in the grounds in spring is quite magical and meandering through the kitchen garden, resisting the temptation to eat the produce then and there, is a tantalising way to while away an afternoon.

Interiors

The interior design throughout the house draws inspiration from the Arts and Crafts movement; luxurious fabrics sit alongside antiques sourced by the Brownsword family for their authenticity and warmth; exquisite art blends seamlessly with lovingly restored wood panelling and an intimate atmosphere pervades the air, creating a home-from-home the moment guests arrive.

Guest Rooms

Named after local landmark tors, each of Gidleigh Park's 24 luxurious guest rooms are individually designed, featuring beautiful antiques and paintings from the Brownsword family collection. Every guest room has been designed to have the feel of a private home and this approach carries through to the Pantry on the first floor, stocked with complimentary fruit, yoghurts, homemade biscuits and hot drinks – guests simply help themselves when feeling peckish!

The Pavilion

A self-contained thatched cottage on the croquet lawns, The Pavilion offers a more secluded Gidleigh Park experience. Comprised of a two-guestroom interconnecting suite, each bedroom has its own bathroom, an open plan panelled sitting room with kitchen diner and a private veranda.

An ideal location for a longer stay, The Pavilion affords guests a discreet bolthole, whilst offering all the luxury of the main house, well suited to guests with young families or for those who enjoy a little more space and privacy.

Afternoon Tea

Best enjoyed on the terrace or in the luxurious lounges, guests can savour Gidleigh Park's sumptuous afternoon tea of warm scones, seasonal preserves, clotted cream and homemade cakes and savouries, complete with fine teas or Champagne.

Restaurant

At the heart of the hotel, the elegant and intimate award-winning restaurant provides a sophisticated backdrop to our decadent tasting and à la carte menus. Dishes are beautifully laced with touches of adventure and invention, crafted with exceptional skill and care. Menus are contemporary with a nod to tradition, supporting local Devonshire farmers and producers to ensure that only the finest quality ingredients make it on to the plate.

Weddings & Events

Gidleigh Park offers a timeless backdrop to any event or special occasion. The hotel provides a range of wedding options, from a daytime ceremony, reception and wedding breakfast, to exclusive hire of the venue.
