SOMETHING FOR THE LITTLE ONES

With its 107 acres of beautiful parklands, fresh country air and the North Teign River flowing through its grounds, Gidleigh Park epitomises the very best of life in Devon. Within the secluded gardens and woodlands of the hotel there are various outdoor facilities, including a tennis court, a bowling green, championship croquet lawns and an 18-hole putting course designed by the legendary Peter Alliss. Walks from the hotel take you along the river and onto the higher moor where there is the chance to spot the local wildlife, including squirrels, owls, rabbits, and if you are lucky deer. We can also arrange for birds of prey displays in the grounds and fishing on the banks of the river or in the local reservoirs. Should you wish to venture a little further then there are numerous activities, walks and leisure facilities ideal to keep your little ones interested and occupied.

The Miniature Pony Centre

20 minutes

This attraction proves most popular with our younger guests. See, meet, and touch over 150 animals including tame ponies, ducks, geese, rabbits and guinea pigs.

Castle Drogo

20 minutes

A National Trust Property and the last castle to be built in England, Castle Drogo is set above the Teign Gorge with dramatic views of Dartmoor. What appears to be an ancient granite fortress overlooking the wilds of the moor was actually the 20th-century home of self-made millionaire Julius Drewe. Employing the foremost architect of his age, Sir Edwin Lutyens, Drewe created an impressive family home that attracts visitors from across England. During the summer, activities for the children are a daily occurrence including arts and crafts, walking trails and reinactments of notable moments in history. Guided tours commence from 10.00am daily, they will take you on an incredible journey back 400 million years to when Kents cavern Rock was formed. You will be able to feel, smell and experience the cave as our prehistoric ancestors did as they sheltered in the caves.

The Dart Valley Railway / Round Robin

75 minutes

A delightful trip on a steam train through the towns of Totnes and Kingswear, followed by a ferry across to Dartmouth, and a boat trip back to Totnes. Dartmouth is a delight to visit, known throughout Devon as the jewel of the South Hams, its ancient, narrow streets house boutique shops, art galleries and delicatessens. A cobbled market place features colorful stalls and farmers markets supplying local produce. In addition, the tour offers stunning views of what is arguably one of the most beautiful coastlines in the South West.

Woodlands Leisure Park

75 minutes

Woodlands Holiday Park in Dartmouth is set in 90 acres and is home to the UK's biggest indoor play centre. Experience action packed out door fun with great family rides, there are playzones for all ages and enchanting attractions for small children. Live show, fantastic festivals, falconry displays and the unique Big Fun Farm are included in the admission price.

Plymouth Aquarium

75 minutes

The National Marine Aquarium was the first aquarium in the UK to be set up solely for the purpose of education, conservation and research. It remains one of Britain's foremost aquariums with stunning exhibits and a reputation for excellence in education. The Aquarium experience comprises a total of 50 live exhibits including three large tanks, the largest of which – Britain's deepest tank – holds 2.5 million litres of water. Over 4000 animals from 400 species are displayed in realistic habitats from local shorelines to coral reefs. Located in the city of Plymouth, it provides easy access to a variety of shops and places to eat.

Devon's Beaches

For sunny days when a trip to the beach calls, then the South Hams provides some of the best coastline in Devon. The choice includes Bantham, Bigbury on Sea and Salcombe with lots of little coves to explore and nearby traditional sea side villages to visit.

VISITING CORNWALL

The bordering county of Cornwall is a popular tourist attraction, providing visitors with the chance to explore a host of magnificent sandy beaches, lush green countryside and craggy cliffs within an hour's drive of the hotel. Cornwall is also the perfect place to indulge in one of the many water sports available including kayaking, canoeing and surfing. Should you wish for a more relaxed pace, then we recommend taking a leisurely trip to the many seaside villages scattered along Cornwall coastline. The town of Rock is located across the Camel Estuary from the fishing port of Padstow. Rock's sandy beaches make it an ideal location on sunnier days with sand dunes and rock pools attractive to young families and a trip across to Padstow can be enjoyed on the regular foot ferry. Port Issac is a delightful fishing village approximately 6 miles from Rock, that charms visitors with its winding streets and white washed cottages. Fishing and scenic trips can be taken from the harbour during the summer months.

Crealy Adventure Park
